

XXI Triennale: i poster

La campagna pubblicitaria progettata dall'agenzia di comunicazione di Amsterdam KesselsKramer dove un misterioso oggetto giallo, collocato in diversi contesti, evoca l'interazione dell'uomo con il design

Now that we can do anything, what will we do?
Bruce Mau

The only design you will ever need in your life.
It does everything you want it to do. it is both innovative yet authentic.
Technical yet user friendly.
for the home yet for the office.
For your pocket and your bedside. It is Design After Design, manifested into a single object.
